Dear Taxpayer:

This is in response to your Dec. 07, 2009, request for information regarding your tax-exempt status.

Our records indicate that your organization was recognized as exempt under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code in a determination letter issued in February 2005.

Our records also indicate that you are not a private foundation within the meaning of section 509(a) of the Code because you are described in section(s) 509(a)(1) and 170(b)(1)(A)(vi).

Donors may deduct contributions to you as provided in section 170 of the Code. Bequests, legacies, devises, transfers, or gifts to you or for your use are deductible for Federal estate and gift tax purposes if they meet the applicable provisions of sections 2055, 2106, and 2522 of the Code.

Beginning with the organization's sixth taxable year and all succeeding years, it must meet one of the public support tests under section 170(b)(1)(A)(vi) or section 509(a)(2) as reported on Schedule A of the Form 990. If your organization does not meet the public support test for two consecutive years, it is required to file Form 990-PF, Return of Private Foundation, for the second tax year that the organization failed to meet the support test and will be reclassified as a private foundation.

If you have any questions, please call us at the telephone number shown in the heading of this letter.

This is to certify that the information reported on your tax return is correct. Our records indicate that your organization was recognized as a private foundation under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code in a determination letter issued in February 2005. Our records also indicate that you are not a private foundation within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Code because you are described in section 170(b)(1)(D)(i) and 170(b)(1)(D)(ii) of the Code. Therefore, you are not eligible for the charitable contribution deduction under section 170(e) of the Code. If you need the determination letter, you may request a copy from the IRS. Beginning with the organization's first taxable year and all succeeding years, it will meet one of the public support tests under section 170(b)(1)(D)(i) or (ii) as reported on Schedule A of the 990. If your organization does not meet the public support test for two consecutive years, it is required to file the 990 for the second tax year. If the organization failed to meet the support test and will be reclassified as a private foundation, you should call the telephone number shown in the heading of this letter.
